INFORMATION FOR NEW DANCERS FOR DIAMOND DANCE FORCE 2024 - 2025

The Academy has a competition group known as the Diamond Dance Force, which meets 2-3 nights a week. DDF dancers normally meet on Monday, Wednesday or Thursday nights, with occasional practices on Saturday or Sunday near competition time. Younger dancers meet 1-2 hours each night, while older dancers may meet for 3-4 hours each night. DDF fees range from $75-$135 per month and fees are due year-round.

DDF dancers are offered lessons each week in jazz, tap, clog, ballet, lyrical, hip hop, acrobatics, conditioning, kicks, leaps and turns. Additional classes in different genres may be added. DDF dancers' range in age from 3-19, and are grouped according to age, size and skill level. DDF dancers normally attend 3/4 regional dance competitions and one national competition each year, which are voted on in the Fall. Regionals may be in Chattanooga or within a 2-3-hour radius. The Diamond Dance Force is a commitment and dancers are expected to be at all practices and rehearsals. Dancers will have additional expenses in costumes, shoes and competition entry fees.

If you have an interest in becoming a member of the Diamond Dance Force please complete the attached form and return to your studio manager. Summer workouts begin on Monday, July 8th. We may have a few classes in June, Day and time TBA. Classes will start 5-5:30PM, and will last 1-3 hours, depending on age. Auditions are tentatively set for the first week of August.
